

Domaine Marion Pral
2009 Beaujolais Cuvee Terroir

87 Pts

100% Gamay - BEAUJOLAIS

Marion Pral's 2009 Beaujolais Cuvee Terroir – from chalky southern Beaujolais – perpetuates the virtues of her 2008, albeit in a predictably riper context. Ripe cherry and strawberry dominate in the nose and on an exuberantly ripe palate with hints of fruit pit bitterness offering counterpoint. There is a bit less cut and minerality here than in the 2008 but still attractive suggestions of salt and stone, while the texture is a bit more caressing.
